The Class of 1942 gratefully dedicates this nineteenth volume of "Memorabilia" to Mr. Joseph F. Kittredge, class advisor. We wish to take this opportunity to express our deepest appreciation to this man, whose industry, discretion and understanding have guided us through the trials, troubles, and tribulations of our High School Years.

Foreword

Refrain from the unholy pleasure

Tribute to the Faculty

We, the Class of 1942, who are now preparing to pass through the portals of Clinton High School to take our places on the path of life, wish to take this opportunity to pay a tribute, perhaps small, to the men and women who, more than anyone else, have made all this possible — the faculty. We shall always remember how these men and women have labored so diligently and ever so patiently under difficulties which might have discouraged a less competent group of teachers.

Grateful to this group which has taught and inspired us, we leave Clinton High sadly, but without regret, confidently to exemplify in our lives the principles which they have instilled in us.

FACULTY

IN APPRECIATION

THOMAS F. GIBBONS
Superintendent of Schools

Every member of our graduating class has benefited from the guidance of our Superintendent of Schools. He has conscientiously guided us and advised us in our formative years. Therefore, we feel it only fitting that we show here our appreciation for this man who will always be an inspiration to us.

EBEN S. COBB
Principal

The successful machination of Clinton High School has been assured for a score of years by the professional stimulation, personal encouragement and technical guidance of our principal. He has been no small factor in inspiring us with the great aim of education — to be best fitted for our life's work and to help make the world a better place in which to live.

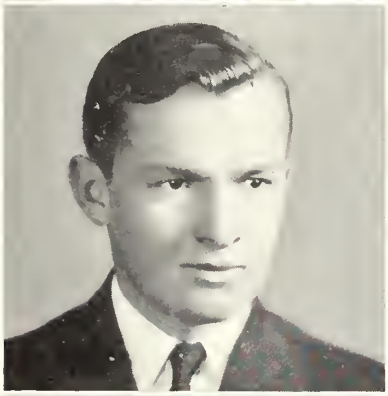
LOUISE AMBROSI

History Circle, Photography Club, Shorthand Circle.

"All things come round to her who will but wait."

Presenting one of the most popular damsels from the lofty heights of the famous Acre district. It has been a source of mystery and wonder to us how Louise retains her cheery disposition no matter what the circumstances surrounding her might be. Although Louise always held a steady place on the testimonial lists, nevertheless, she managed to find time for her share of fun and frivolity.

Louise is undecided concerning her future undertakings, but whatever she chooses, she can be relied upon for unquestionable success.



WILLIAM ANDREJCZYK

Tau Sigma, History Circle.

"The greatest truths are the simplest; and so are the greatest men."

Bill, as he is called, is one of our quiet, unassuming yet ambitious young men.

He has always kept his marks well above average although never seeming to study too hard.

Bill is an outdoor man and his favorite pastime of hunting occupies quite a bit of his time during the season.

Bill is planning to attend Massachusetts State next year so Good Luck, Bill, from the Class of '42

THEODORE ANDREWS

Photography Club, Tau Sigma, History Circle, Class Book Staff.

"By the work one knows the workman."

Ted is a tall, blond, handsome Acre boy. To the casual observer Teddy is quiet and reserved. We who were his classmates these last four years know that this conclusion is far from being correct.

Although his marks were above the required grades, Ted is definitely not the studious type. Ted's vocation is undecided now, but whatever career he pursues, we of '42 are confident of his success. Lots of luck, Ted.

NADINE LUCILLE BAER

History Circle, French Club, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Class Book Staff.

"She lives long, who lives well."

A true believer in the maxim "business before pleasure" Nadine has always received general excellence. But she also believed in getting the best out of life, for she is always on hand for the social activities of the school.

By her cheery manner, she has made many friends during her school years and indeed she is a friend worth having. Success is destined to be yours and the Class of '42 is rooting for you all the way, Nadine.

KATHERINE MARIE BAILEY

Junior Prom Committee, Class Book Staff, Photography Club, Thanksgiving Show 1-2-3, Interclass Dramatics 1-2-4, Ring Committee, History Circle.

"Her heart is in her voice."

Well, here's one girl Clinton High is certainly going to miss. Her popularity is not limited to the Senior Class alone because she's everybody's favorite.

What would a High School show be without "Kathie." She has one of the best voices in the class. But her dramatic career does not end here. No indeed! She has taken part in the Interclass Dramatics which were very well done.

"Kathie" plans to enter State Teachers' where we know she'll be a success. Here's luck from the Class of '42.

EARL THOMAS BAKER

"Cheerful people live long in our memories."

Socially — a great success, artistically — a future business man, scholastically, — well!? Thus briefly do we catalogue those characteristics of Earl which are evident after an hour's acquaintance. Those deeper traits — friendliness, rollicking humor, are cherished by those who know him well. If one considers these qualities he knows that they build up an admirable prediction for anyone.

We all know that Earl deserves the esteem in which we his classmates hold him. The best of luck from the Class of '42.

WALTER PETER BARLOW

Tau Sigma, History Circle, Class Book Staff, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee.

"There's nothing at all that worries me."

Walter Barlow — a gentleman personified — an attribute which goes not unappreciated by the fair sex of our class. No social event worthy of the name has come and gone during Walter's high school career without that smooth dancing and infectious grin of his.

His was a successful four years scholastically and socially. May the same success crown all the many other "four years" still to come.

MIRIAM MARTINA BOYLAN

Photography Club, Secretary 2, Junior Marshall, Junior Prom Committee, History Circle, Shorthand Circle, Class Book Staff.

"Her hair, her manners, and all who saw admired."

Petite and charming is Miriam. We can also add complacent and fun loving.

Her attractiveness and popularity can be seen by the stag line following her at every dance, or a glance at the list of her activities.

Miriam's plans are to become a secretary and from the qualifications a secretary has to have, we're sure she'll succeed. Best of luck, Miriam, from the Class of '42.

GEORGE BRADLEY

Tau Sigma, History Circle.

"If the end be well, all is well."

In every class there is a group of quiet, modest, loyal fellows who eagerly and faithfully shoulder most of the unrewarded labors. George was one of these, but despite his quiet manner, he won a host of friends with his ever sunny disposition and patience.

Although never the studious type, George managed to sail through his course with no great mishap.

If "sincerity is the essence of achievement," then we must look upon George as a man of achievement.

ANTHONY BROWCHUK

Football, Baseball, History Circle, Tau Sigma.

"My idea of an agreeable person, is one who agrees with me."

In thinking of Tony we recall many diverse characteristics: athletic ability, rollicking humor and the "gift of gab" — above others. As an athlete he was the answer to any coach's prayer, be it football, baseball or basketball; as a humorist — well, ask any teacher who was unfortunate enough to have him in class; and as a true friend — many are the classmates who will vouch for that fact.

Here's to you, Tony, from the Class of '42.

RUTHE JOAN BURGOYNE

History Circle, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Athletic Association 1-2-3-4, Sophomore Interclass Dramatics, Shorthand Circle.

"As merry as the day is long."

Tall, willowy, with sable brown hair, and deep, green eyes all go to make one of the most charming girls in C.H.S. Who? Ruthe Burgoyne, of course.

There is something about the way Ruthe walks and laughs and wears clothes that show us that she has that indefinable "something," which accounts for her great popularity at all social events.

"Ruthe" is leaving for the Wilfred Academy in the fall, and we know that C. H. S.'s loss will be Wilfred's gain.

MARJORIE JOAN BURGWINKLE

History Circle, Prom Committee.

"She makes the sun shine in a shady place."

During her stay at C. H. S., Margie has gained a host of friends because of her cheerful disposition and charming personality.

She has always been present at our class functions, adding life and gaiety to them. A great lover of football, players always heard her voice above the noise of the crowd, cheering them on to victory.

As for the future, Margie is still undecided, but whatever she chooses the Class of '42 wishes her the best of luck.

OLGA MARGARET CAIAZZI

History Circle, Shorthand Circle, Historical Society, Junior Prom Committee, Class Book Staff.

"Hospitality sitting with gladness."

Take a cheerful smile and a pleasing personality, put them together and you have a perfect description of Olga. Although Olga is a testimonial student, don't get the idea she is a constant bookworm. She spends a great deal of time outdoors and is fond of sports.

Olga plans to be a secretary, and with her friendly manner we know she will be a success. Best of luck from the Class of '42.

NANCEE ADELAIDE CALL

History Circle, Class Book Staff.

"A light heart lives long."

Tall, ebony-haired, and amber-eyed, Nancee draws all eyes to her as if by magnetism. Moreover, she enhances this by superbly lovely clothes which she cleverly designs and makes herself. Her artistic ability has also manifested itself in some unusually fine portraits and impressionistic works which have made her already, figuratively, "a big frog in a small pond." Wisely, Nancee intends to develop this talent still more at the Vesper George School of Art.

Best of luck, Nancee.

GLORIA CHIARELLI

History Circle.

"Life has loveliness to sell."

In her quiet, retiring manner, Gloria has impressed us with her pleasant and ladylike ways. Possessed of a well-modulated voice and a clear mind, she speaks with the air of a young lady with firm convictions.

Faculty members and classmates alike were attracted to Gloria because of her sweet manner and pleasing personality.

Gloria has not taken us into her confidence concerning her future plans, but the members of the class join in wishing her the best of luck.

GEORGE CIAVOLA

History Circle, Tau Sigma

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

Everything about "Chick" is decidedly friendly; his nature, his smile above others. He indulges in all kinds of sports, winter and summer, spring and fall. Eventempered and congenial, "Chick" makes a grand friend, whose friendship is well worth claiming. We shall always remember "Chick" for the way he brightened up the classrooms with his outstanding wit and humor.

We wish the best of everything to George, for with his perseverence and sincerity, he is sure to succeed.

BARBARA ANN CLEARY

History Circle, Basketball 1, Junior Prom Committee.

"A merry heart giveth a cheerful countenance."

A pleasant girl with a friendly smile is all we need to say in introducing "Barbs." She is one of the most popular girls of the senior class and can be seen at every social event. Her pleasing personality and her help given to her classmates account for her popularity. Barbara has never given much thought to studying but her marks are always above the average.

She has always kept her ambition a secret but we know whatever she undertakes, she will surely succeed.

Here's luck from the Class of '42.

JOHN JOSEPH CLOUGHERTY

Tau Sigma, History Circle.

"Stones will melt before his smile."

"Clock" has an agreeable and sociable manner that makes him well liked by his classmates. He experienced his sole difficulty in his studies — but he surmounted that obstacle as has many another enterprising student. His ability to inject humorous remarks into the daily recitation kept many a grateful classmate from succumbing to the gentle arms of Morpheus. His ambition is to become a member of the United States Naval Air Force, and we sincerely hope that he succeeds.

THOMAS FRANCIS CLOUGHERTY

Tau Sigma, History Circle, Class Book Staff.

"A dinner lubricates business."

And now let us introduce Tom whose intrinsic sense of humor and ever present smile have won many friends for him. Tom overbalances his short stature with scholastic abilities and all around good fellowship. He is a loyal supporter of all high school games and may be seen at all our social functions. We predict a bright and successful future for you, Tom, whatever you endeavor.

EDWARD JEROME COGSWELL

Tau Sigma, History Circle, Class Book Staff, Interclass Dramatics 1-2-3, Senior Show, Photography Club, Student Council, 1-2.

"Worry never did man any good."

Meet Eddie, one of our best liked students. As an actor "Cogs" was a boon to any director's heart — ask any audience after one of our class plays. Not only has he acting ability, but his sense of humor will be vouched for by any of those fortunate enough to be chosen as his intimates.

Regarding the future, "Cogs" has his heart set on a school of optometry. He plans to take up his practice in Texas, and, literally, "Cogs," "The Eyes of Texas are Upon You."

THELMA LILLIAN COLBURN

History Circle, Basketball 2.

"Some think the world is made for fun and frolic, and so do I."

Glancing at Teddy during a class we imagine her to be quiet — but ask her friends or even her study teachers — Mr. Garrity in particular.

Her friendly manner has gathered her friends from far and near.

Basketball, roller skating and dancing are her favorite pastimes.

Her ambitions are many and varied. She has always felt the urge to do something outstanding in fields other than those of the feminine class. So to Teddy goes the best wishes from the Class of '42.

MARY ALICE CONNOLLY

Photography Club, History Circle, Junior Prom Committee, Shorthand Circle, French Club.

"When Irish eyes are smiling."

Let us now focus our attention on one of the most popular girls in the Senior class.

At all social events you can be sure to see Mary, for her favorite pastime is dancing and she is never without a partner. However Mary never goes home without a book under her arm and manages to stay on the testimonial list.

Mary plans to be "somebody's stenog;" the Class of '42 wishes her the best of luck.

MIRIAM DAMSKY

History Circle, Shorthand Circle, Photography Club.

"Silence never betrays you."

A friendly smile, a cheery greeting and an interesting conversation truly describe Mim.

Although she is unusually carefree, she shows a deep interest in the finer things of life — Dramatics and Literature.

Being one of our most industrious students, she found no trouble whatever in reaping testimonials during her four years at C. H. S.

"Mim" plans to try her hand at the nursing profession, and we are sure that only success awaits her.

NATALIE A. DE BLOIS

History Circle, French Club, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Senior Show Committee, Class Book Staff, Orchestra 1-2-3-4.

"And still they gazed and still the wonder grew,
How one small head could carry all she knew."

Twinkling eyes, flashing dimples, a contagious giggle and here we have a very accurate description of Natalie.

Her witty sayings have caused many a class to rock with laughter but "all work and no play — " well, maybe that's why Nat's name continually adorned the honor list each quarter.

Natalie's ambition is to be a laboratory technician, and indeed gay will be the laboratory which is favored with her sunny presence. So say we, the Class of '42.

MARGUERITE DE CESARE

History Circle, French Circle, Photography Club, Athletic Association 1-2-3-4.

"Nay, I shall never be aware of mine own wit
'Til I break my shins against it."

A giggle, a twinkle of those big, brown eyes and a smile means none other than Marguerite. She can be recognized anywhere by her rippling, contagious laughter. By her witty remarks she adds to the enjoyment of those who are fortunate enough to be chosen as her intimates. During her four years here, she has enthusiastically attended all social and sports events. She certainly knows how to keep up with the fashion standards. We wish Marguerite the best of fortune in whatever she undertakes.

HAROLD CHESTER DENSMORE

"Who is the happiest of men? He who values the merit of others."

Harold is a quiet boy with a pleasant smile and a pleasing personality.

His love of field and stream occupied him outside of school and he would rather fish and hunt than swim in Clinton High's social whirlpool.

His industrious manner and good nature won him the friendship of both pupils and teachers. Harold intends to enter the U. S. Naval Training Station next year and the Class of '42 wishes him success in his chosen field.

NORMAN DIEGOLI

History Circle, Tau Sigma.

"To keep happiness we must be willing to give and share it."

Perhaps we shall remember Norman as one of the quieter boys of the class, but those who know him intimately value his sincere and loyal friendship.

Although he was never a grind where schoolwork was concerned, nevertheless Norm's interest in his subjects and his ability to rate highly in them always gained the teachers' confidence.

We wish the best of everything to Norman, for, with his perseverance and sincerity, he is sure to succeed.

DANIEL DIONIS

History Circle, Tau Sigma, Photography Club, Thanksgiving Show 2-3, Orchestra 2-3-4.

"None but himself can be his parallel."

Presenting "Danny Dennis," the school's most talented musician. "Danny" has won fame thru his fine musical ability and sensational clarinet playing, not only in Clinton, but throughout the New England States.

Smooth dresser, technique with the opposite sex, and versable manner make "Danny" one of Clinton's most popular young gentlemen.

The Class of '42 will never forget "Danny's" talent; a talent that we are sure will lead him to stardom in the musical world.

NORA M. D'OLIMPIO

History Circle, Photography Club.

"The better known, the better is her worth appreciated."

Here we have an extremely quiet person with a friendly, pleasing and very refreshing personality. A person of few words, but when she does speak it is generally certain, here is something to say.

She has the good fortune to possess a wonderful sense of humor and she always appears to be in the best of spirits.

We all know that Nora, although undecided as to future plans, is destined for success. Good luck, Nora.

VICTOR D. D'ONOFRIO

Tau Sigma, History Circle, Photography Club.

"On with the dance."

Introducing one of the best dancers in the class, as well as one of its most loyal members, Vic D'Onofrio.

He has lent his enthusiastic support not only to class but also to school functions, and many a time has been observed giving a perfect example of how a real student of dancing looks in action.

Vic's future plans are uncertain but whatever they are "42" wishes you the best of luck, Vic.

MARY A. DONAHUE

History Circle, Photography Club, Orchestra.

"My tongue within my lips I rein,
For who talks much must talk in vain."

Mary, a petite, blonde, blue-eyed girl is one of the most likable members of our class. After her departure she will be noticeably missed, and no doubt, the corridors will seem gloomy in the absence of her radiance.

She is a high-ranking student, scholastically and socially. With her flair for testimonials, and her magnetic personality betrayed in her twinkling Irish eyes, Mary is sure to go far on the path of life.

THOMAS DRAKOS

Football 3-4, Senior Football Club, Photography Club, Tau Sigma, History Circle.

"He who is good is happy."

Tom is, as a general rule, a quiet and studious lad, but when aroused, can hold his own in any conversation.

Coupled with his intellectual ability is his athletic prowess, which is evident by his outstanding record as a football player.

"Toss" has no definite ambition but whatever he undertakes in the future, the best wishes of the Class of '42 shall always go with him.

FRANCIS JOSEPH DROOGAN

History Circle, Photography Club, Senior Show.

"Well-timed silence is more eloquent than speech."

"Bud," as he is known to his many friends, is not as quiet as all outside appearances would indicate.

He is a frequent visitor at the Holy Rosary Gym where his talent on the basketball court is well displayed.

Although he is not a testimonial student, he manages to acquire satisfactory marks and also have a good time as well.

He has not mentioned his plans for the future, but the Class of '42 sends you best wishes and loads of luck, "Bud."

CATHERINE DUFFY

Photography Club, History Circle, Class Book Staff.

"A jolly good sport is she."

Now we turn to "Catty," well-liked by everyone for her friendly smile and charming personality.

"Catty" was ever willing to lend a helping hand for any deserving cause. No dance at C. H. S. would have been complete without her presence and she always seemed to enjoy herself, too.

"Catty's" future has her slated for a secretarial school and she leaves with the best wishes of the Class of '42.

ELIZABETH DUGGAN

History Circle, Class Book Staff, Junior Prom Committee, Photography Club.

"Good nature, What a blessing!"

Elizabeth is one of the few members of our class who daily commutes between C. H. S. and Sterling. She is the possessor of a quiet manner, pleasing personality plus a fine sense of humor. "Betty" is an all-round outdoor girl in the true sense of the word. She has been with us for three years and during that time has made a host of friends and acquaintances.

Her future plans, as yet, are unknown, but she carries with her the best wishes of the Class of '42.

ALICE DUNCANSON

History Circle, Junior Prom Committee, Photography Club.

"A winning way . . . A pleasant smile."

Alice is one of a large group of our classmates who daily makes the long trip from lofty Greeley Hill. "Dunk's" pleasing personality, genial manner and cheery smile have made her a favorite with pupils and teachers alike.

As is the case with many of us, Alice's future plans are uncertain, but wherever she goes and whatever she does, the best wishes of '42 will follow her.

EUNICE LOUISE DUNCANSON

Class Secretary 3-4, Class Book Staff, Junior Prom Committee, Junior Marshall, History Circle, Photography Club, Interclass Committee, French Club.

"Whoever is popular deserves attention."

Eunice needs no introduction to the Class of '42 for she has been our popular secretary for two years.

"Eunie" is always ready, willing, and able to make any affair a success. Indeed what would a school event be if "Eunie," accompanied by her two special pals Helen and "Dottie," were not there?

Eunice plans to attend the Chandler Secretarial School, and a charming and capable secretary she will make some lucky person. Good luck "Eunie" from '42.

AGNES DOROTHY DURKIN

Photography Club, History Circle, Shorthand Circle.

"A little thing, a sunny smile, a pleasant word at morn."

Agnes, better known to all her classmates as "Aggie," is a charming girl, full of fun, and always ready and willing to help anyone.

"Aggie's" ambition is to be a private secretary. The Class of '42 registers no concern for her future, for a girl of her caliber can only meet with success in all her undertakings.

Best of luck, Agnes.

CATHERINE MARIE DURKIN

Historical Society, Photography Club, Shorthand Circle, History Circle, Senior Show.

"Apparently so calm and sweet you'd never realize
That a mischievous little self deep within her lies."

Catherine, better known as "Kattie," often leads people to believe that she is one of those extremely quiet girls. Nothing could be more misleading. "Kattie" is one of Clinton High's most popular figures. Besides being gay and witty, "Kattie" has always managed to be "on top" where testimonials were concerned.

She surprised everyone at the Senior Show with her amazing performance. An unassuming nature plus a charming personality have made "Kattie" loved by all.

The Class of '42 wishes her unlimited success in her chosen profession as a stenographer.

RICHARD FLANDERS

Football 1-2-3-4, Baseball 2-3, Tau Sigma, Photography Club, History Circle, Senior Football Club, Thanksgiving Show 3.

Dick is 5' 11" tall, with sparkling brown eyes, and an everlasting smile.

"Pop's" exceptional ability as a "Football hero" and his unusually clever wit have made him the ideal friend of every student in his class. His rating is not that of a "top" student, but he has had no difficulty in "getting by" during his four years.

"Pop's" plans for the future are, at present, uncertain, but we feel sure that with his irresistible personality and sense of humor, there is no doubt about his future success.

MARY JANE FLYNN

History Circle, Photography Club, Student Council, Junior Prom Committee.

We are all familiar with the old slogan "Laugh and the world laughs with you." Well, here is a young lady who follows out this maxim to the letter. Jane is a tall brunette with laughing blue eyes, and her charming smile is one of her greatest assets. Books never seem to bother Jane a great deal, but, nevertheless, she managed to keep her marks well above the passing grade.

To one of its favorite members, the Class of '42 wishes the best of luck.

GINA FORGIONE

History Circle, Photography Club.

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace."

A small package full of good things: perseverance, friendliness, sincerity, to mention a few. We must not forget that she is conscientious — for any task given to her is a task well done.

But Gina has another side other than her serious one, for she enjoys her share of fun and laughter; but she's luckier than most for she can mix fun and work and still show an enviable record.

Here's to your future success, Gina.

MAE MARGARET FRASER

French Club, History Circle, Clinton Historical Society, Women's Club, Prom Committee, Class Book Staff.

"In her tongue is the law of kindness."

Mae is the last of the Fraser clan. With great ease she has lived up to the family tradition by keeping her marks above ninety. She possesses poise and a reserved personality, and is completely unaffected. Add to these a wonderful sense of humor, and a talent for interesting conversation, and the final result — Mae, a good friend and lots of fun. Judging from her past success, we are sure that her future can be nothing but bright.

IRMA FREY

History Circle, Photography Club, French Club, Class Book Staff.

Charming personality, delightful to know, talented author and poetess as well as musician, and industrious scholar. Who else could be the versatile possessor of these many achievements except our own personable Irma?

Irma has also been a loyal supporter of the school and class functions and no matter what the social or sporting event might have been, she could always be seen lending her willing support.

Irma's determination to continue in the field of writing leaves us assured of her future success.

MARION FURPHY

History Circle, Shorthand Circle, Photography Club.

"To see her is to like her; To know her is to love her."

Here's one girl who would never pass up an evening of Glenn Miller just to stay home and further her education. Marion has attended every social function carried on in C. H. S. since her freshman year — and studies and teachers never seemed to interfere with her activities — rather, she combined both with encouraging results.

Although Marion is undecided concerning her future plans, her cheery nature is bound to take her far.

HELENE ANN GALUSKA

Junior Prom Committee, Photography Club, History Circle, Class Book Staff.

"The mildest of manners and the gentlest of hearts."

Helene is the outstanding artist of our class. Her artistic ability has won the admiration of all who have seen her fine work.

Helene has a friendly greeting for everyone; she is a soft-spoken young lady, and has proven herself to be a conscientious worker.

If Helene's dreams come true, she will attend art school in the future.With the natural talent she possesses in this line, she can not help but succeed.

Best wishes from the Class of '42 to you Helene, and may you meet with good fortune in all your undertakings.

BARBARA MARIE GANNON

Photography Club, History Circle, Shorthand Circle, Junior Marshall, Ring Committee, Junior Prom Committee.

A flashing smile, a friendly wave, a lovable disposition — it is with sincere regret that the Class of '42 bids farewell to its youngest and most popular student.

"Bobby's" fun-loving personality has guided her into the heart of every classmate. Her exceptional ability in shorthand and typewriting has been repeatedly recognized, and her plans for the future are directed towards development of these outstanding talents.

The Class of '42 wishes you the best of luck, "Bobby," on your brilliant path towards inevitable success.

DOROTHY ANN GANNON

History Circle, Photography Club, Ring Committee, Junior Prom Committee, Junior Marshall.

"Always ready, always there, Always willing to do her share."

At any outside activity, be it football, skiing, or any other sport, "Dotsie" was always a ready rooter. She was chairman of various committees and every quarter found her name on the testimonial list. Those who are acquainted with "Dotsie" might well wonder how one girl could accomplsh so much; but we, her classmates, know her secret — unwillingness to admit defeat.

'Dotsie" plans to enter the field of medicine, and we all wish her the best of luck and success.

JOHN GANNON

Tau Sigma, Junior Prom Committee, History Circle, Photography Club.

"He was fond of amusement too."

Alas! Presenting John Gannon, who, although he is a stranger to his teachers, nevertheless finds no difficulty in locating his classrooms, when he does condescend to put in an appearance at school. John's time seems to be equally divided between chauffering the hearse for a local funeral establishment, and collecting tickets at the local cinema. John is the type who never strains any muscles carrying too many books home, but, somehow managed to struggle through his four years at C. H. S.

Best of luck in your future undertakings, John.

EVA GAROFOLI

History Circle.

"Either I will find a way or I will make one."

Eva, that good-natured, jolly person who is so easy to get along with that everyone knows and likes her.

Although sincere friendliness is her specialty, we can't help but feel that mischief runs a close second. But Eva took her studies seriously and mastered them easily. With her ability to make friends and her sense of responsibility in serious matters, Eva will surely find a short cut to the highway of success.

VIOLA MARY GAROFOLI

Secretary of History Circle, Junior Prom Committee, Senior Show, Photography Club.

"A light heart lives long."

Viola will be remembered by most of us for her sparkling personality and her ability to "Get into the spirit of things" at all times. (With little conscious effort), "Vi" managed to keep her marks above average during her stay at C. H. S.

In the Senior Show we all remember her as the petite "Miss" who thought everything was just "too thrilling!"

Petite, gay and possessed of real friendliness, Helen has enlivened many a classroom with her presence.

She is ever in attendance at our football games and dances, and although not particularly studious, she manages to get by.

GERARD LaPLANTE

History Circle, Photography Club, Tau Sigma.

"Success follows earnest effort."

A diligent student, willing to study to learn himself, and willing to give knowledge so that others may learn. Gerard's time spent studying was not wasted, as his marks plainly show.

Perhaps the outstanding personal characteristic of this gentleman is his quiet manner—but under that surface there is true friendship, sincere and loyal.

We are happy to be able to claim Gerard as one of our classmates. Best of luck from '42.

DOROTHY B. LINDSTEDT

History Circle, Photography Club, Shorthand Circle.

Best of luck, Ernie, in whatever the future holds in store for you.

A young lady with a grand sense of humor, who displays kindness and loyalty towards her friends, is a clear and accurate picture of Delia.

Delia is shy, in a way, and consequently, she is not what you would call a "social butterfly," but nevertheless she has her share of good times.

Toward whichever field or career the hand of destiny guides you, Delia, remember that the good wishes of your class follow.

Good luck from '42.

"He who is good is happy."

Let's study closely and see what we find under Al's pleasant countenance: more pleasantness to be sure — but also ambition, joviality, the ability to get things done and to help others get things done too.

Though his scholastic record may not be star-studded, he is a good example of the up and coming high school boy, active and well-liked.

History Circle, Field Hockey Team 1941, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee.

"Thy modesty's a cradle to thy merit."

Take a friendly word, a cheerful smile, a pleasing personality; put them together and you have Veronica. Her sunny smile plus her ever-pleasant disposition have won her a host of friends. Although Veronica says little, her recitations prove that she hears a great deal.

Veronica has not taken us into her confidence concerning her future, but the class most sincerely wishes her good luck and prosperity.

EDMUND FRANCIS PANNI

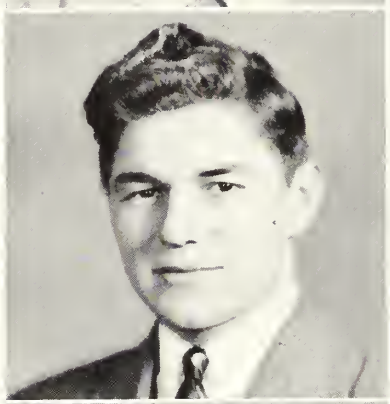
Football 3-4, Photography Club, Tau Sigma, History Circle, Senior Show, Chairman of Junior Prom Committee, Class President 3, Class Ring Committee, Class Book Staff, Junior Marshall, Treasurer of Senior Football Club.

"Willing to lend a helping hand."

This young gentleman with the "gift of gab" and pleasing personality is known to us all. He was one of the most important cogs in the wheel that drove our varsity team to outstanding performances, but this didn't prevent his hat from still fitting him.

"Ed" very ably gave of his time and talent to make our Junior Prom a success, while serving in the capacity of Junior Class President.

Toward whatever career fate leads you, "Ed," you have the best wishes of '42. Good luck!



CHRISTINE PAPACOLAS

History Circle, Photography Club, Class Book Staff, Junior Prom Committee, Shorthand Circle.

"She found life's sunny side."

"Chris" is one member of the Class of '42 who can be depended upon at any time and on any occasion for her keen sense of humor. When "Chris" is present, laughter reigns. By her unusual wit she has made many a pessimistic classmate see the brighter side of things. "Chris" does not neglect studies, however, for her name regularly appears on the testimonial list.

In whatever the future holds in store for you, "Chris," best of luck from the Class of '42!

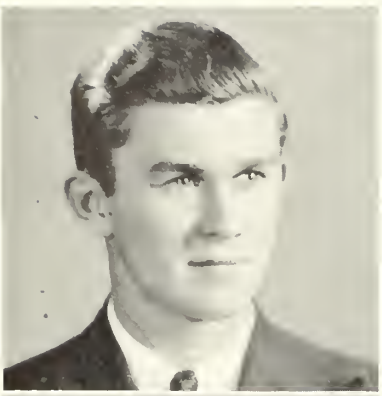
ELEANOR PAULINO

Junior Prom Committee, History Circle, Photography Club.

"Endurance is the crowning quality."

Let us now present Eleanor, one of the more popular girls in Clinton High School. With her pleasing personality and winning smile, plus her ever-willingness to help, Eleanor has gained a host of friends among her classmates. This happy-go-lucky girl, although popular in social activities, has never neglected her studies, and as a result, her name continually appeared on the testimonial list.

Eleanor plans to enter the field of nursing, and she goes accompanied with the best wishes of '42.



GEORGE J. PELLERIN

Tau Sigma, Photography Club, History Circle, Football 4, Senior Football Club, Junior Prom Committee, Senior Show Committee.

"Zealous, yet modest."

Although George is one of the least conspicuous boys in the class, he can claim many friends. "Pelly," as he is known to his friends, does not head his class as a student, but he has managed to keep his marks well above the average. No definite statements have been offered by him pertaining to his future, but the Class of '42 wishes him success in his chosen field.

EDWARD POWERS

Class Treasurer 2-3, Junior Prom Committee, Class Ring Committee, Tau Sigma, History Circle, Photography Club, Class Book Staff, Junior Marshall.

"A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."

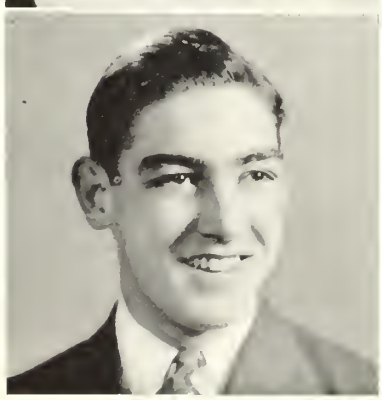
Tall, dark, cheerful — these adjectives describe one of our most popular students, Ed Powers. During his high school career Ed excelled as a student, yet he enjoyed no small social success. His popularity is vouched for by the fact that he was twice elected to the post of Class Treasurer.
Ed's great love in the field of sports is skiing, at which he has become almost an expert. While Ed hasn't as yet disclosed his plans for the future, we know Ed's aims are high, and we are sure of his future success.

PEARL PULASKI

History Circle.

"She was of a gentle nature."

When we think of Pearl, we recall a sunny disposition, a pleasing personality, and a willingness to help whenever necessary — perfect attributes for a perfect classmate.
In class she is the example of a good student, for her lessons are always carefully prepared, and for this reason marks never caused her a great deal of worry.
Pearl has not quite decided what steps she will take towards a career; but whatever she does, she will certainly be a credit to the class.



HOWARD RAMIG

Baseball, Football, Tau Sigma, History Circle, Junior Prom Committee, Photography Club.

"There's nothing at all that worries me."

Tall, dark and handsome are adjectives which fittingly describe "Pop." He was one of the stalwarts who had enough talent to make the baseball and football teams. "Pop" was one of our staunch supporters at all the class functions, where the opposite sex received their full share of attention from this Lochinvar. His afternoons were mostly spent wielding a butcher knife in the local A & P store.
In Howard's future undertakings he carries with him the best wishes of the Class of '42.

MARION NORMA REARDON

History Circle, Shorthand Circle, Photography Club, Thanksgiving Show 3, Stunt Night.

"There's rhythm in her dancing feet."

As an instrumentalist, and also as a scholar, Marion has proven herself to be one of the highest caliber, throughout her four high school years. Marion is fittingly known as "Flash" by her friends and acquaintances, of whom, you may be sure, there are throngs. "Flash" has won the reputation of being one of our best dancers, and anyone who has danced with her will strongly vouch for this fact.

Marion plans to become a comptometrist and the sincerest wishes of '42 for success and happiness accompany her.

MIRIAM JOAN REARDON

Photography Club, History Circle, Junior Prom Committee.

"When the heart is light with hope, nothing comes amiss."

Versatile, charming, and friendly are the only adjectives which Webster could justly use in describing Miriam. She was a loyal rooter at all athletic events, and a staunch supporter of all class functions. "Mercy's" spare time was spent as a first class soda-jerker at McCann's Emporium.

"Mercy's" dimples and marvelous taste in clothing are just two of the things we shall always remember in thinking of her.

Best of luck and success in your future undertakings, Miriam.

MARION F. RICE

"The very personification of friendship."

Take some pretty red hair, sparkling blue eyes, a marvelous disposition, put them together and you get — Marion, of course.

A talented actress, a singer, and an outstanding student, Marion still finds time to attend all the social events and is always very much occupied with her many partners.

Marion plans to attend business school in the fall, and '42 sends its best wishes with one of its favorites.

JEROME REITH

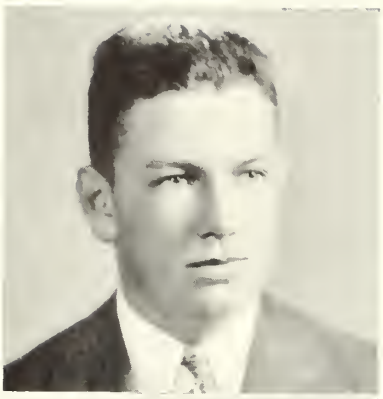
Tau Sigma, History Circle, Photography Club.

"Every man is a book if you know how to read him."

Supposedly one of the quiet members of our class, Jerome's many friends will belie that rumor. He is equipped with a pleasant sense of humor plus a magnetic personality.

Jerome is very much interested in sports but had not the adequate time to try out for the various teams. He is, however, an ardent fan and was ever found in the cheering section at all sports events.

Best of luck from '42. We know you will be an asset to our name.



JOHN BRUCE ROCKEL

Tau Sigma, History Circle, Photography Club.

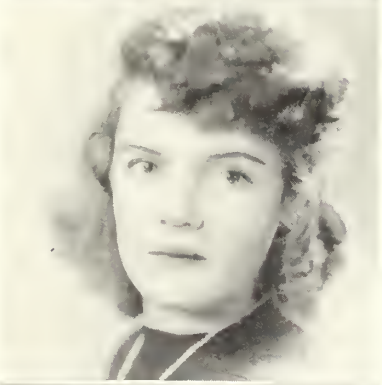
"To take things as they be, that is my philosophy."

"Jack" is one of the many Acre boys who have proven themselves a credit to C. H. S. Although not a testimonial pupil, he managed to pull through with a satisfactory standing.

His winning smile and humorous anecdotes have made him a favorite with all.

"Jack" is planning to attend trade school next year and we are confident that whatever he undertakes, only success can await him.

Best wishes from the Class of '42, John.



MILLICENT JEAN SANFORD

History Circle, French Club, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee.

"A good heart is worth gold."

For many years to come Milly will remain in our memories; mostly as a very small girl with a brilliant crown of red hair and a certain way of looking at you with her big hazel eyes. We will also remember that tidy little space in the testimonial list which she has maintained during the past four years.

If her past is a clue to her future, she is assured of the success we all wish for her.

ANTHONY SANGINARIO

History Circle, Tau Sigma, Class Book Staff, Class Treasurer 4.

"With malice toward none."

Tony is always seen with a host of friends, acquired through his amiable disposition. Consistency and dependability have characterized Tony since he first entered high school, and he has proven his true worth as a Senior, serving in the trying capacity of class treasurer.

Tony has always applied himself enthusiastically to his studies and we feel confident that this characteristic will see him safely and surely along the road to success.

MARY SANTORA

Photography Club, Freshman Thanksgiving Show, History Circle.

"Just me — carefree — happy as a lark."

We now come to Mary, a girl who needs no introduction. When we think of Mary, we can only recall her finer characteristics: a pleasing personality, a sunny disposition, and a willingness to help whenever called upon.

Mary's sense of humor never misses the funny side of anything, and she has brightened our darkest moments with her gaiety and cheerfulness.

The Class of '42 wishes you the best of luck, Mary, in whatever the future holds in store for you.

EARL SARGENT

History Circle, Tau Sigma, Junior Prom Committee.

"A quitter never wins, a winner never quits."

When Earl was a freshman, he noticed that man was gifted with two ears and one mouth. Thereupon he came to the conclusion that one should listen twice as much as one should speak, and thus he occupies a position among the quieter boys of the class.

Studies and Earl seemed to make a pleasant mixture, accounting for his high scholastic standing.

The road to success is a hard one, but keep smiling, Earl; you'll come out on top.

ELIZEBETH CLARA SCHLEGEL

Shorthand Circle, History Circle, Photography Club.

"She who loveth instruction loveth knowledge."

Here we present "Betty," who needs no introduction, for she is known and liked by everyone. "Liz" never seemed to bother too much about studying, but nevertheless, her name managed to appear on the testimonial lists each quarter.

"Betty's" ambition thus far, tends toward a nursing career, and we feel confident of her success in whatever field she chooses, since she possesses all the qualities that insure success.

The Class of '42 is rooting for you, "Betty!"

CORINNE SCHOTT

"As loyal and friendly as the day is long."

Corinne is recognized by all as one of the most pleasant and carefree girls in the Class of '42. Studies alone never occupied all of Corinne's free time, for she was an ardent sports fan and a loyal supporter of all class activities.

Corinne's future plans have her destined for the nursing profession, and the possessor of such charm and personality leaves no doubt in the minds of her classmates of the success awaiting her.

MARGUERITE RUTH SCHOTT

History Circle, Junior Prom Committee.

"Fair thoughts be your fair pillow."

Introducing Marguerite, a young lady noted for her pleasant smile and sunny disposition. Her studies were never allowed to interfere with Marguerite's good times, but, nevertheless she managed to keep her record fairly clean.

Marguerite seems to show a tendency toward the nursing profession, and plans to join the "White Parade" after graduation — such a cure for an ailing body.

Best of luck, Marguerite, from the Class of '42.

DOROTHY SEYMOUR

History Circle.

"A friend whose heart has eyes to see."

Pleasant to look at, delightful to know; that is an apt description of Dorothy. Although "Dot" might give the impression of being a quiet, pensive young miss, this is decidedly a case of appearances being deceiving.

Dorothy has not yet completed her plans for the future, but we know that no matter what profession she chooses, her friends will be many, and her winning personality and initiative will be sure to bring her untold success.

ANN SHAUGHNESSY

Junior Prom Committee, History Circle, Shorthand Circle, Interclass 4.

"A good heart is worth gold."

Ann needs no introduction, for her giggle is her trade mark. Many a time her merry ripple of laughter has changed a gloomy classmate from depression to delight.

Never absent from any social event, Ann still finds time each quarter to collect her share of "testies."

Ann plans to follow the nursing profession, and knowing her charming personality we envy her future patients.

'42 wishes you the best of luck, Ann.

JOHN JOSEPH SHAUGHNESSY

President of Tau Sigma, Football 4, History Circle, Junior Marshall, Junior Prom Committee.

"Not that I loved study less, but leisure more."

Mix a cheerful personality, eternal and raucous laughter, pleasant smile, sunny disposition, and the result — "Shauno." The big question that seemed to bother John in his senior year was "Why do I have to study about Cicero and Catiline, when they have been dead for two thousand years?" John's popularity cannot be further questioned, after being unanimously elected president of the Tau Sigma. John's plans for the future, as yet, are vague, but only success can await such a personage as he.

AUSTIN FRANCIS SHERIDAN

Interclass Dramatics 2-3, President 2, Junior Prom Committee, Photography Club, Christmas Show, Treasurer of History Circle, Tau Sigma, Class Book Staff, Junior Marshall, Class Ring Committee.

"He mastered whatever was worth the knowing."

"To be or not to be; that is the question," and "Austy" always chooses the affirmative, which undoubtedly accounts for his scholastic and social success at C. H. S.

His acting ability, without a question, is beyond reproach.

In later life, after occupations have been sought for and chosen, the Class of '42 will be proud to claim you, "Austy."

Take with you the best wishes of your Class, '42.

PEARL ELLEN SIBYA

History Circle, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Shorthand Circle.

Pearl is one of our most prominent Senior girls. She is the possessor of a charming personality, coupled with an extraordinary sense of humor. "Happy and carefree all the while" seems to be Pearl's maxim, and she is certainly a girl of her word, for one just can't feel blue while in her company. If Pearl shows as much enthusiasm in her future undertakings as she did as a supporter and a worker for our class, only success can await her in the future.

EVELYN IRENE SMYTH

Thanksgiving Show 2-3-4, Cheerleader 3-4, Ring Committee, Shorthand Circle, Photography Club.

"Her bright smile haunts me still."

Evelyn's big blue eyes, flashing smile, unbelievably tiny feet, and unusual personality, have made her place in our memories secure. But she has fascinated us even more with her exceptional ability in both acrobatic and tap dancing, and has served us ably and charmingly for the past two years as one of our cheerleaders.

At present Evelyn is planning for a career in business, but whatever she may undertake we feel confident of her success. Best of luck, Evelyn!

JAMES SOLDI

Tau Sigma, Photography Club, History Circle, Junior Prom Committee.

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill.

Jimmy's lack of stature has by no means obscured him from view. He has, in fact, distinguished himself in several things: his exceptional imagination, his agility on the dance floor, his impeccable attire, his flawless taste, and his unusual assortment of facial expressions.

Jimmy plans to attend Beeman Preparatory School next year to prepare for a career in business. His personality and ambition assure him of the success we all wish for him.

MARY ROSE SOUZA

History Circle, French Club, Photography Club.

"A good laugh is sunshine in a house."

"Suzy" is not one to become flustered over trivial matters; she can meet any situation intelligently and calmly. But that is Mary's serious side. There is yet another Mary, whom we all love — the gay and witty Mary. When Mary smiles, exhibiting flashing white teeth and sparkling brown eyes, all those near her just naturally smile too.

Mary is planning to become a nurse, and the Class of '42 wishes her all the success that is rightly due her!

ANOULA STAMOS

Shorthand Circle, History Circle, Photography Club

"Either I will find a way or I will make one."

Four and one-half minutes past eight and Anoula dashes up the stairs trying to get to her seat on time. She needs no introduction for she is known and admired by all. Every school affair found her present and willing to give whatever support she could to put it over.

Anoula is one of our outdoor girls, and is particularly fond of swimming.

The best of wishes from the Class of 1942 goes to Anoula for her chosen profession as a secretary.

GEORGE WILLIAM STONE

Junior Prom Committee, Photography Club, Tau Sigma, History Circle, French Club, Interclass Dramatics 2-3, Senior Show, Interscholastic Dramatic Competitions 3, Thanksgiving Show 2-3-4, Junior Marshall.

Next is a classmate whom few of us in '42 will ever forget. "Stoney" is the class "undertaker." He undertakes to do every job; for when a helping hand is needed, "Stoney" is always present.

He is also one of our leading Thespians, having appeared in nearly every show since his Sophomore year.

Whatever field of endeavor you enter, "Bill," remember that the Class of '42 is pulling for you, so, good luck and best wishes from us all!

JOSEPH PETER STUKA

Tau Sigma, History Circle, Football 2-3-4, Baseball 2-3-4.

"Brain and brawn well combined."

Presenting "Joe," one of the most popular boys in our class. "Joe's" feats on the gridiron, where he helped lead the 1940 team to a Midland League Championship, speak for themselves.

"Joe's" athletic ability was not restricted to the gridiron alone, for he has been a star catcher on the baseball nine for the last three seasons.

"Joe's" future plans have him destined for Seton Hall Prep. School, and the Class of '42 joins in wishing you the best of luck, "Joe."

SYLVIA LORRAINE THOMSON

History Circle, Photography Club.

"Mischief in her eye, music in her heart."

Now we come to one of the best-liked girls in the Senior Class. This blue-eyed blonde has made a great success of her four years at C. H. S. both socially and scholastically.

Always a lover of sports, Sylvia was present at most of the athletic functions of C. H. S. for the past four years, cheering our teams on to victory.

While her plans for the future are indefinite, we know that she is sure to succeed in whatever she chooses.

DONALD TYRRELL, JR.

Football 3-4, Senior Football Club, Photography Club, History Circle, Junior Prom Committee, Thanksgiving Show 3, Tau Sigma.

"I have no further ambition than to be esteemed by my fellow men."

"Donnie" is one of the rare combinations of athlete and good student. He is possessed of an attractive smile and is always well dressed.

We remember him best for the athletic ability he demonstrated on the Varsity Football team for the past two years. His sportsmanship, cheerfulness, and willingness to help have made him a much sought-after friend. "Donnie" plans to attend the University of Wisconsin in September, and he takes with him the best wishes from the Class of '42.

LEON UNDERWOOD

Tau Sigma, History Circle.

"The race by vigor, not by vaunts, is won."

A typical C. H. S. product and one of those shining types of strong and silent men, Leon is held in high regard by a host of his classmates.

Studies and Leon were a rare mixture but he always managed to keep his marks above the passing grade.

Quiet is he, both by nature and preference, but he is not without his accomplishments, for when Leon graduates, he will not have failed to take firm hold on the memory of his class.

EMILY MAY VANASSE

History Circle, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Interclass 4

"It's a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

A giggle, a smile, and a twinkle of the eye means none other than "Emmy," one of the fairest maids of the class. "Emmy" is an all-round good sport and is seen at all the football games, school shows, and dances.

As all good things must come to an end, we say good-bye to "Em." Though her plans for the future are not definite we know that success is destined for her. Good luck, Emily.

WILLIAM VAN TRAIN, JR.

Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee, Thanksgiving Show 3, History Circle, Class Book Staff, Tau Sigma.

"Good humor is allied to generosity."

"Choo-Choo," as he is known to the class, is more or less the quiet type. He is very studious, ambitious and a good worker, but for all his seriousness "Choo-Choo" has a wit with which he can make anyone forget their troubles.

"Chooch" informs us that he intends to pursue a course in engineering at Worcester Tech. Best of luck from '42 in your chosen field, Bill.

NANCY MARIE WARE

French Club, History Circle, Interclass Dramatics 3-4, Senior Show, Photography Club, Junior Prom Committee.

"It's nice to be natural, when you're naturally nice."

This phrase fittingly describes dark-haired, blue-eyed Nancy.

One of our most talented actresses, "Nan" has appeared in almost every show presented by the class. Nancy's good humor and charming personality account for her popularity with teachers and pupils alike.

She believes in combining business with pleasure and as a result each quarter Nancy's name adorns the testimonial lists.

Nancy plans to enter the nursing profession and the best wishes of '42 follow her in her chosen field of endeavor.

ROWLAND JOSEPH WOODMAN

Photography Club, History Circle, Tau Sigma.

"A man of few words is a man well spoken."

During his four years with us, "Joe" has definitely proven that he is not the studious type, although his marks never caused him great worries on his journey home to Sterling. "Joe" has proven himself a real friend, and was ever willing to offer a helping hand, providing the task was not too strenuous.

Rowland plans to enter Worcester Trade School in the fall to prepare himself for an automobile mechanic's trade.

Best of luck from '42, "Joe."

ANNA ELIZABETH ZADROZNY

Photography Club, History Circle.

"Taste the joy that springs from labor."

Who is this cute, blue-eyed, petite miss? Why it's "Ann," one of our most fun-loving classmates who is rarely seen without her gay smile and cheery "hello."

The chief topic in "Ann's" life seems to be Ancient History versus an evening of fun. Although the latter generally wins out, nevertheless, her marks never show any disastrous results.

'42 wishes one of its most loyal members the best of luck in whatever the future holds for her.

JOYCE BOLUS

History Circle, Photography Club.

"The deed intended is great, but what, as yet, I know not."

Although Joyce was a late addition to our class she soon won a prominent position in our hearts. Being rather of the studious type, she immediately commanded the admiration of her teachers as well as their respect. In her quiet, rather pensive manner Joyce has impressed us with her pleasant and very ladylike ways.

Joyce has not received us into her confidence concerning her future plans, but we feel she won't have to acquire success — it will be thrust upon her.

Class History

Reminiscence of the past four years brings back to us untold memories, memories too numerous to even try to enumerate on these few pages. As far as is in our power, however, we shall outline the main events, tragic, humorous and interesting of these, our High School years.

FRESHMEN 1938-39

Our first day as High School students, mingled feelings, uncertainty, dismay, jubilance, fears and fun —— a maze of corridors —— god-like creatures, the seniors —— a real hurricane, a fitting reception for this outstanding group of newcomers —— first disaster, report cards, mid-years —— interclass competition, real promise of better years —— our first formal, the Junior Prom —— a fitting ending for a remarkable year —— Our next recollection as ——

SOPHOMORES 1939-40

A year of experience at our backs —— somewhat depleted ranks —— Sophomore Suffrage, the power of the ballot —— wisely choosing Austin Sheridan, President; Margaret McNamara, Vice-President; Edward Powers, Treasurer; Miriam Boylan, Secretary —— Mr. Joseph F. Kittredge appointed as Faculty Advisor —— our first adventures as businessmen, dances in Music Hall, Food Sales on High Street —— report cards again, mid-years; but with careful alibis for the trend toward red ink —— another long-to-be-remembered offering in the Interclass Dramatics —— another highlight of the school year, the Prom, careful attention on our part for the next offering of this sort would be our own presentation —— we now returned somewhat proudly as ——

JUNIORS 1940-41

Comical belittlement of the Freshmen —— not too much anxiety for studies —— another election found two new faces among our leaders; Edmund Panni, President; Eunice Duncanson, Secretary —— the fall season saw our football warriors cop the Midland League Championship —— report cards, mid-years and Interclass Dramatics came and went uneventfully, since we are now experienced hands in such trivial matters —— at last we are to have an opportunity to show our skills, both artistic and managerial — our own Junior Prom. Was there ever an event that was a parallel to our Hawaiian Spectacle — huge pineapple multi-colored streamers, cozy corner, the marvellous strains of Matty Mattison's orchestra — all in all an event long to be remembered even as we returned with a tilt to our heads as —

SENIORS 1941-42

To begin a year which would see many changes in our young lives, we brought forth two new officers: Daniel O'Malley, President; Tony Sanginario, Treasurer —— our Senior Show may be remembered as our finest dramatic production —— December 7, a date which will live forever in American history; bringing about many changes in American people as a whole and also in individual lives, even the lives of High School Seniors —— The last half of our last year finds the organization of our History Circle, Tau Sigma, French Circle and Shorthand Circle — Strange tunes and songs reach our ears from the direction of Room 16, graduation preparations —— all is now built up for a fitting climax to our four years in Clinton High School — Senior Week.

Our period of recollection is now over. Let us think now, not of the past, but to the future. Have we prepared ourselves to take our places in life? We somehow feel that we are prepared, not so much through our own effort, as through the effort of the men and women of the faculty. We shall go forth endeavoring at all costs to be a credit to them and an honor to our Alma Mater.

Class of '42 as Freshmen

Class of '42 as Sophomores

Class of '42 as Juniors

Class of '42 as Seniors

"Elizabeth's Young Man"

Freshman Inter-Class Play

Directed by John O'Malley

CAST

Abigail Orr	Irene McCann
Mrs. Lanning, a relative	Marion Rice
Elizabeth Orr, daughter of Mrs. Orr	Katherine Bailey
John Martin	Edward Cogswell

Stage Manager — Roger Steele

This play marked our entry into High School Dramatics, and while we did not obtain the coveted first prize, nevertheless, we accredited ourselves very well.

It concerned the love of Elizabeth Orr for John Martin, and Mrs. Orr's objection to the match.

Mrs. Orr, believing John to be an escaped lunatic, treated him as such, and there was one amusing sequence where Mrs. Orr, in a gown of 1900 vintage, had the poor boy sit beside her on the divan showing him pictures of animals and designating each as a dog, cow, etc.

After a series of incidents, the lovers were united at last and the curtain fell on our first dramatic presentation.

"Prettiest Girl In Town"

Sophomore Inter-Class Play

Directed by Martin Gibbons

CAST

Mrs. Addison	Irene McCann
Dorothy Addison, her daughter	Ruthe Burgoyne
Betty Addison, another daughter	Katherine Bailey
Jack Addison, son of Mrs. Addison	Edward Cogswell
Fred Thompson, friend of Jack	George Stone
Al Bigelow, All-American Halfback	Joseph McNabb
William Saerley, friend of Jack	Austin Sheridan
Sue, friend of Dorothy and Betty	Marion Rice
Rhoda	Dorothy Malatos

Stage Manager — Edwin Philip Kittredge

This was one of our best dramatic efforts, securing favorable comment.

It concerned the plight of Rhoda, orphaned cousin of the Addisons, who worked as their maid, treated as their inferior.

The three Addison children and their friends, Fred, William, and Sue, were planning to go to the Junior Prom and were all agog over the expected arrival of Al Bigelow, All-American Halfback.

Rhoda pretended she knew him. Her cousins introduced her as such to Al, thinking to humiliate her, but, instead, Al invited Rhoda to the prom leaving Dorothy to go with William.

"Crazy Love Affair"

Junior Inter-Class Play

Directed by Joseph Robinson

CAST

Stephen Blake	Edward Cogswell
Mrs. Blake, his wife	Irene McCann
Terry Blake, their son	Austin Sheridan
Irene Hayes, Mr. Blake's ward	Nancy Ware
Jefferson Webb, guest of Blake's	Joseph McNabb
Mrs. Fainshaw, guest of Blake's	Marion Rice
Nellie, the maid	Dorothy Malatos

This play procured many a laugh from the audience and was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Blake were entertaining a Mrs. Fainshaw and Jefferson Webb for the week end.

During the course of the week end it developed that Mrs. Fainshaw was in reality the divorced wife of Mr. Webb. Their marital troubles had grown out of quarrels over the Aunt Fanny of the former and the Uncle Dick of the latter.

Terry, in love with Irene, found his plans thwarted to marry her by his parents, on the ground that they were both too young.

After a series of entanglements, the curtain found Mrs. Fainshaw and Jefferson Webb, and Terry and Irene together.

Senior Show

"Be Yourself"

Directed by Henry O'Toole
Stage Manager: George Bradley

CAST

Mrs. Maude Barry	Irene McCann
Annabel Barry, her sister-in-law	Nancy Ware
Bobby Barry, her daughter	Dorothy Malatos
Poole, the butler	George Stone
Hannah, the maid	Catharine Durkin
Philip Barry, Bobby's brother	Austin Sheridan
Edward Perkins	Edmund Panni
Prof. Babbington Brown	Francis Droogan
Robert Ingold, the snake oil man	Dewey Mahan
Bob Brown	Edward Cogswell
Mona Biehler, Philip's fiancee	Viola Garafoli
Clotilda Hargrave, Mrs. Barry's sister	Marion Rice

The curtain opened on our Christmas show with Bobby Barry in a heated discussion with her mother over her refusal to marry Ethelbert Perkins, and professing her love for a Bob Brown.

Determined to teach her daughter a lesson, Mrs. Barry went to the station to meet Bob. Meanwhile, Bobby sent Mona and even her brother in the hope that one of them would get to the station before her mother and meet Bob.

Mrs. Barry brought someone home whom she introduced as Bob, and Philip brought home a Robert Ingold, but it remained for Mona to bring home the right Bob.

Amid trying to keep the person Mrs. Barry brought home locked up in the doghouse, and Robert Ingold from the clutches of Hannah who claimed to have won him in a raffle, things were running along riotously. That was only the beginning. Clotilda, whom Mrs. Barry believed to be a burlesque queen, arrived and also Edward Perkins.

Mrs. Barry and Edward Perkins had a quarrel in which Mr. Perkins insinuated Bobby wasn't good enough for his son to marry and vice versa Mrs. Barry.

Bobby found out Bob was really Ethelbert, and her mother's jewels were stolen to add to the confusion.

The final curtain found the jewel thief to be Hannah, the comical maid; Clotilda, the Madam Harisoni whom Mrs. Barry was to entertain; and the poor man in the dog house the Prof. Babbington Brown, another of her expected guests. But wait — aided by Clotilda, Bobby and Ethelbert, alias Bob, have eloped, and as the saying goes, "All's well that ends well."

"Commencement Capers"

Directed by Henry O'Toole

For the first time in many years, no interclass dramatic was presented. Each class, instead, presented some stunt, which in our case was a farce on graduation.

The graduating class, with the girls attired in slacks, and the boys in overalls and bright colored shirts, came shuffling down the hall to the stately chords of the "Coronation March."

An introductory speech by the class president, Daniel O'Malley, presentation of the Bulova Award (an alarm clock) to himself for having the most tardy marks, and the presentation of the O'Sullivan Award (plaque of rubber heels) to Francis Droogan for having achieved the difficult mathematical feat of computing the number of steps taken in a year on the hall steps by any average senior, led up to the presentation of the class gift.

Never in the history of the school had such a treasured or coveted class gift been presented and the class president held the hope that students in the years to come might gaze upon it and know that such things as it once existed. The gift — a slightly used rubber tire.

Abner Whitzbe of Hingham, guest speaker of the exercises, who had been asked to speak because he had accomplished the feat of flunking in high school, held the audience and the graduating class spellbound by his oratorical skill. Mr. Whitzbe was more popularly known as Dewey Mahan.

Specialties by Irma Frey, Victoria Kolakowski, Dorothy Malatos, and Frank Kalinowski, followed by the singing of the class song, with a tune vaguely familiar to "Deep in the Heart of Texas," completed the graduation exercises.

Senior Football Club

Football

The roar of the crowd, cheers of the onlookers and nostalgic air of a football season bring back our varsity games to our memories.

The spirit of the team plus the support of the community contributed in no small measure to the success of the 1942 season. Seniors on this year's squad were:

Joe Fazio and Joe Stuka, Co-Captains; Pop Flanders, Ken Johnson, Ed Panni, John Shaughnessy, Donny Tyrell, Tom Moore, Tony Browchuk, Joe Mortimer, George Pellerin, Tom Drakos, Joe Heamer, Howard Ramig and Charles Georgeson.

The Senior Football Club extends their thanks for the fine training and encouragement given to them by Coach McCaffrey and Asst. Jack Ball.

Gardner 16 — Clinton 0

The excitement of our first game of the season, and the realization that this was the start of our last year of school, contributed to making this a memorable game, though not as the victors. Clinton's team held gallantly on ground defense and took the offense for one half, but due to lack of reserves, Clinton was defeated.

Natick 20 — Clinton 0

Traveling to encounter the first Midland League opponent of the season Clinton was defeated 20 to 0. Even in defeat, however, Clinton showed their fans in that game what the future held for them. The team made three very dangerous threats, but it simply didn't have the scoring punch. Clinton's passing and running attack showed promise of greater things with another week of practice to bolster it.

Milford 0 — Clinton 6

Clinton traveled to Milford to win its first game of the season on a sweltering hot day. The favor of the battle swayed from one side to the other. Clinton's line again was very porous for the half but in the second stanza they tightened up. Clinton made its tally after a 30 yd. march placing the ball on the 10. It was last down and 2 minutes to go. The ball was passed back. Clinton took the ball on an end sweep for a touchdown. The Clinton boys really showed superb spirit by cashing in on that one deciding break.

Bartlett 0 — Clinton 13

Avenging the defeat of last year Clinton downed Bartlett 13 to 0. Bartlett offered a stiff defense which made it very difficult for Clinton to break through in the first half. Clinton began passing the ball in the second half and thus accounted for its first touchdown. For the last quarter the Bartlett players literally began dropping like flies. But Clinton remained on its toes and scored again. Clinton's good condition had much to do with the victory.

Leominster 25 — Clinton 0

Clinton traveled to Leominster and was defeated 25 to 0. Leominster, a very strong opponent, scored their first touchdown in the very first quarter by taking to the air. Clinton, then putting the pressure on, played very dangerous ball for the remainder of the half. But because Clinton lacked reserves and Leominster had an abundance of material, they scored another 19 points in the second half. Leominster's air attack was Clinton's defeat.

St. Mary 13 — Clinton 26

A new team added to Clinton's schedule for the 1941 season. As soon as the game began Clinton took the offensive. Clinton's tallied wise in the first half due to the ground attack which was very impressive. In the second half the whole second team was sent in and this was the reason St. Mary's got their two touchdowns. Then Clinton's first team went in and started an air attack which accounted for the last tallies.

Marlboro 7 — Clinton 14

Clinton next encountered league-leading Marlboro in a night contest, played in the neutral territory of Hudson. Entering the game as underdog, Clinton immediately showed that pre-game dope means nothing if a team possesses the right spirit and courage. In the opening quarter Clinton commenced the slaughter by marching the full length of the field and, after being held on the 5 yd. line, came back and pushed over its first tally. Marlboro scored in the third period on a tricky pass completion; but came the fourth quarter, came a pass interception by Pop Flanders, came another touchdown via his 60 yd. runback, came victory for Clinton.

Athol 25 — Clinton 2

A lugger, heavier and more experienced Athol team next invaded Clinton and brought with it a stunning defeat. Smashing its way down the field through brute force and an occasional surprise pass, Athol four times crossed into pay dirt. Try as she could and try as she did, Clinton could not stop Athol from rolling. Battered and beaten Clinton left the field to seek revenge on the opponents in her last two contests.

Hudson 7 — Clinton 7

Hudson, gunning for a Midland League title proved to be Clinton's next opponent. It resulted in a seesaw battle with neither team seeming to gain the edge on the other. Off to a flying start, Hudson early in the game marched the length of the field and pushed across its 6 to 1 points. Coming right back with its own smash and drive process, Clinton rolled over to tie up the ball game. Marching and threatening, both teams used up the last half and at the final gun the score remained 7 - 7.

Maynard 8 — Clinton 26

For its turkey day Special, Clinton picked clean the bones of high-flying Maynard High. From start to finish there was no doubt of the outcome — Clinton was plainly the better team. With a view to a big appetite for dinner every Clinton player turned in a fine contest. Four times Clinton crossed the Maynard goal line to bring a very successful conclusion to the 1942 season.

Baseball

The 1942 baseball season found the Clinton High team almost completely stripped of players with any experience whatever.

Forced to field an entirely green team, Mr. McCaffrey and the boys themselves have worked long and hard. Since "Rome was not built in a day," the results of games played thus far are far from encouraging; but, at the same time, realizing the team is almost entirely composed of Sophomores and Juniors, and seeing the noted improvement in the score column, prospects for the 1943 season seem much brighter.

The scores for the season run as follows:

	Opponent		Clinton
Maynard	13		11
Milford	10		3
St. Bernard's	13		6
Gardner	20		4
Marlboro	6		0
Fitchburg	7		1
Hudson	7		5
Marlboro	25		2
Maynard		Cancelled
Gardner		Cancelled
Fitchburg	4		1
Milford	11		4
Leominster	5		4
St. Bernard's	2		12
Leominster	2		4

Seniors on this year's squad were: A. Browchuk, G. Stone, C. Georgeson and R. O'Malley.

History Circle

The History Circle was organized shortly after the Mid-Years with the following officers: Edward McGown, President; Emily Vanasse, Vice-President; Viola Garafoli, Secretary; and Austin Sheridan, Treasurer. From our Freshman year we looked forward to the time when we would become members of the History Circle, in order that we, too, could enjoy the meetings and the trip to Provincetown.

However, Fate once again stepped in and decreed that for the Class of 1942 these things would be impossible. After our organization meeting our schedule was widely interrupted by such things as Sugar Rationing and Gasoline Rationing. As a result we had but few meetings of the Circle. The first real formal meeting proved very interesting as our speaker, Chief Michael E. Kelley outlined for us the part we were expected to play in the Civilian Defense Program. Several more meetings are being planned and more interesting features will be introduced.

With a large number of the class working afternoons the attendance at our meetings fell off considerably, but every member still maintained interest in the Circle, especially in the final meeting.

When our moderator Mr. O'Toole explained why it would be impossible to go to Provincetown this year, other suggestions were made; but in each case the same problem confronted us, "what are we going to do for transportation?" Difficult and disappointing as it is for the Class of 1942 to forego these things we have been looking forward to, yet we will always look back upon our Senior year with the satisfaction of feeling that for the sake of our war effort we were only too glad to co-operate. Perhaps when the Class of 1942 holds its first reunion it will be in the form of a History Circle Meeting and that much-looked-forward-to trip to Provincetown will be a reality.

Le Cercle Francais

President ..... Charles Georgeson
Vice-President ..... Nadine Baer
Secretary ..... Nancy Ware
Treasurer ..... Earle Johnson

The French Club is a senior activity at the Clinton High School, and its purpose is to promote interest in French literature and art through an advanced study of the French language. All the activities of the year were planned with a view to that purpose. The programs were numerous and varied. The more notable were the initiation of the Senior French III students and the French Club picnic.

Shorthand Circle

President ..... Dorothy Janda
Vice-President ..... Bernice Marhefka
Secretary - Treasurer ..... Delia Mastrodomenico

The Shorthand Circle was organized this year for the purpose of increasing shorthand dictation speed and to give the members an opportunity to take the advanced tests sponsored by the Gregg Publishing Company.

As a result, four girls were awarded gold pins for writing shorthand at 120 words a minute for five minutes and then transcribing it neatly and accurately. They were: Ruthe Burgoyne, Christine Lambros, Barbara Gannon and Pearl Sibya. Nine students were awarded certificates for passing the 100-word test.

The Shorthand Circle held its annual picnic at Lake Washacum, and the money from the treasury was used to pay all expenses.

Tau Sigma

For over ten years, Tau Sigma has been performing the fine service of informing our senior boys on the subject of social problems and problems of etiquette.

Under the very capable direction of Mr. Lewis S. Gordon, a meeting is held every Wednesday afternoon. The meeting commences with a brief discussion by Mr. Gordon, after which the members themselves present any question they might wish explained.

This year the society was organized early in March and John Shaughnessy was chosen President, Joseph Mortimer was elected as Secretary-Treasurer.

At the time of printing, plans are being formed to sponsor a dance, the proceeds of which will be used to defray the expenses of a banquet in June.

We members of this year's chapter of Tau Sigma wish to extend our deepest appreciation to "Doc" for a most interesting, entertaining, and enlightening series of discussions.

Orchestra

It is a small group of talented C. H. S. students that constitutes the orchestra which is so important in making our graduation program a success.

This year we march to the strains of "The United Liberty" by Losey and "The Flag of Truce" by Laurendeau. The orchestra is also accompanying the chorus in "Lovely Appear" by Gounod, in the singing of the Class Song, and in "God Bless America." The orchestra will have a special opportunity to display its musical ability in offering "Petite Bouree" by de Prosse.

Although our orchestra can not boast of a large membership, the sections are well-balanced and each player is an accomplished musician. Instrumentalists of the Senior Class who held important places during the past four years are: Frank Kalinowski, leading violinist who will develop his unusual talent by further study; Natalie DeBlois, popular violinist; "Danny Dennis," widely known clarinet player; Alfred Lenkiewicz, skilled trombonist; Mary Connolly, Millicent Sanford, and Mary Donahue, equally proficient pianists; and Irma Frey, xylophonist.

To Miss Driscoll, director of the orchestra, we are greatly appreciative. We are proud of the fine musical program she has arranged for us, and the orchestra is grateful for her constant efforts, and eager assistance.

Our Orchestra played the music
In perfect time and harmony;
Still when the strains were heard no more
They lingered in our memory!

I. G. Frey

Class Song

Now we're here together on the shores of Life,
Waves that rise before us surge with storm and strife.
Bravely we'll go sailing over the Future's sea,
Knowing just one harbor — Haven of the Free.

Currents may imperil our embarking year,
Still our God is Captain. How then can we fear?
Peace will be our watchword. Love then will be world-wide.
Some day soon we'll anchor in a quiet tide.

Now that we are leaving for "Tomorrow's shore,"
We can still remember joys of days before.
Let us hope and pray that all of our dreams come true,
Met with faith and courage — Classmates of '42.
